30 Minute FEATURED PRESENTATION

Challenges in Anxiety Disorder Treatment: What Therapists Need to Know to Effectively & Successfully Work With People with Anxiety Disorders Evelyn Goodman, Psy.D., MFT

Learn the important variables that lead to success in working with people with anxiety disorders. The common challenges inherent in anxiety disorder treatment will be addressed, with useful strategies presented for coping with them. Discover effective ways to provide support, guidance and information to those with anxiety disorders. Get the information you always wanted to know but were afraid to ask. Resources will be provided. Learn how you can help.

Evelyn Goodman, Psy.D., MFT, in private practice in West Los Angeles, has been helping people overcome anxiety disorders since 1979 when she began an internship with TERRAP, a group anxiety treatment program. She has presented to both professional and consumer groups over the years & is currently training therapists in all aspects of anxiety disorder treatment in her monthly case consultation group.
